This email and the following attachments are provided as a PROOF of your order. It is EXTREMELY IMPORTANT that you check for spelling, grammar and proper position of each item and indicate your approval with your replied email. Production will not begin without an emailed approval. Another Printer will not be held responsible for any mistakes or corrections after we receive your approval response Without exception!

All requested changes/corrections must be made in writing either via fax, email or hard copy.

This proof is a Digital Representation. The colors you see on screen will not be represented accurately in print. If colors of a previous job must be matched please ensure YOU or YOUR DESIGNER has built the colors to match the previous print. A hard copy proof can be requested and may incur additional charges and will add delays to the production time. Inks will appear different on uncoated or non-white stocks. Because of differences in equipment, paper, monitor calibrations, and other conditions between color proofing and production press room operation, a reasonable variation in color between this proof and the completed job is to be expected. Acceptance of this proof represents your approval.
