James Cook Congratulations! Being a Ranger is a job you have to love to do. They are the nicest people which reflects on South Carolina. Thank you for your service Ranger Johnson! More money needs to be allocated to the parks. More and more people are camping nowadays. It's cheaper than hotel rooms and it's a great way to get kids outdoors. My parents took us camping all the time, we took our kids all the time and now we take our grandchildren. A lot of state parks are falling into disrepair and something needs to be done. Some parks we just won't go to because the camper sites are washed out or horribly unlevel. Wateree State Park is close by and an amazing park. Kings Mountain is a great historical park but needs lots of work. I know these parks don't make a lot of money for the State but they would if they were fixed up and drew people in to spend their money in the local economies. Hopefully one day the state government will realize what a treasure our state parks truly are.
