Personal and Confidential

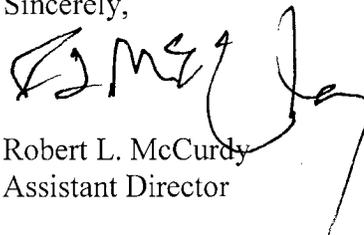

Mr. Glen A. Kennedy
661 Carrols Road
Greeleyville, SC 29056

Dear Mr. Kennedy:

Pursuant to § 22-2-5, all prospective magistrates seeking an initial appointment must pass an eligibility examination testing basic skills. The test has two components- the Watson-Glasser Critical Thinking Appraisal and the Wonderlic Personnel Test. By Order of the Supreme Court dated October 9, 2002, an applicant must score an aggregate of 68 of the two tests for passage. The technical college where the tests were administered has informed us that you took the examination on February 4, 2015, and received an aggregate score of 77 on the two tests. Therefore, you may be considered by your senatorial delegation as a prospective magistrate. Those members will be notified of your score pursuant to your signed release of information. You may wish to retain this letter for your records.

Good luck. Should you have questions concerning this matter, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Sincerely,

Robert L. McCurdy
Assistant Director
