Dear World Leaders,

Speaking for myself and my fellow Americans, please accept our apology for our (so-called) leaders disregard for the recent Paris solidarity march against Islamic terrorism. We hope that you'll find comfort in knowing the governing body of the United States is NOT representative of the sentiments of it's citizens. We ask you accept our sincerest apologies and know that "We the People" stand in unison with you and vow to aid the world in the fight against radical extremism.

Sincerely,
Ron Zara
