Subject: Self Direction Awards- Correction

Greetings,

We apologize for the multiple emails, but we wanted to correct a typo in our earlier email: Individuals do NOT need to attend the Self Direction Conference in order to be nominated for a Self Direction Award.

As a reminder: we will hold a Self Direction Awards Ceremony during the Self Direction Conference to recognize individuals' exceptional contribution to advancing self direction and supporting self-directing participants. The Awards Ceremony is scheduled during the conference reception on the evening of Monday, May 8th.

All awards will be given to individuals, not programs or providers. In each case, awards may recognize contributions over a career of service or an exceptional contribution during the past year. The recognized individual does NOT need to attend the Self Direction Conference in order to receive the award. Award winners will be featured on our website at www.appliedselfdirection.com in addition to being honored at the reception.

You can read more about the award categories here.

Nominations must be submitted by Friday April 7th. All nominations need to document specific actions that the individual has taken to warrant the award. Please note that you do not need to submit nominations for every award category. Submit your nomination online.

Award Recipients will be determined by NRCPDS Program and FMS Members.

Best,
The NRCPDS Team at Applied Self Direction
