Taking Flight: How to Institute Disciplined, People-Focused Management

Hello there,

WINGS for Kids found that children who participated in their first social and emotional skills-focused after-school cohort had a 40% higher graduation rate than a comparison group. What made this success possible?

Like most nonprofits, WINGS for Kids started out small. But unlike most nonprofits, they took the necessary steps to manage performance and they grew big. WINGS credits disciplined, people-focused management, along with six other pillars of high-performance organizations. Join us Tuesday, April 19, 3:00-4:00 EDT for an hour-long webinar.

About this Webinar Series — 2 of 7

The most successful organizations – those that produce positive client outcomes with consistency – cultivate seven core disciplines. This webinar is the second in a series dedicated to exploring what each of the seven pillars of the Performance Imperative look like in practice.
