

From: Andrea Amato <andrea.amato@americanbar.org>
To: Kester, Tonykester@aging.sc.gov
Date: 10/15/2015 10:51:59 AM
Subject: Sneak Peek of Bifocal: Top 10 Myths and Facts About Health Care Advance Directives

---

Dear Subscriber:

As a subscriber to Bifocal, e-Journal of the ABA Commission on Law and Aging, you are being sent this exclusive sneak peek of an article from the October 2015 issue.

Sneak Peek

Myths and Facts About Health Care Advance Directives

By Charles Sabatino

Commission Director Charlie Sabatino shares his top 10 myths and facts about advance directives.

It's almost here -- 2015 National Aging and Law Conference

There's still time to register for the 2015 NALC, held October 29-30 in the DC-metro area.

Learn more at: www.ambar.org/NALC

Conference attendees will enjoy:

- A focus on core substantive legal issues affecting older Americans with the greatest economic and social needs
- Low registration rates and a two-day agenda to minimize travel time and costs
- Four plenary sessions and 24 workshops
- Programming on legal service development and delivery
- High-quality written materials

Make your hotel reservations! (Learn more about the Hilton Arlington)

To subscribe to Bifocal or to submit news items or a manuscript for consideration, contact editor Andrea Amato.

Bifocal is distributed six times a year to state and regional elder bar section and committee officers and members, legal services providers, elder law and other private practitioners, judges, court staff, advocates, policymakers, law schools and elder law clinics, law libraries, and to other professionals in the law and aging networks.

The mission of the ABA Commission on Law and Aging is to strengthen and secure the legal rights, dignity, autonomy, quality of life, and quality of care of elders. It carries out this mission through research, policy development, technical assistance, advocacy, education, and training on a wide range of law-related issues, including: legal services to older persons; health and long-term care; housing; professional ethical issues; Social Security, Medicare, Medicaid, and other public benefit programs; guardianship; elder abuse; health care decision-making; pain management and end-of-life care; dispute resolution; and court-related needs of older persons.

---

This message was sent to &*TO;

Your e-mail address will only be used within the ABA. We do not sell or rent e-mail addresses.

Update your profile   Manage your email preferences   Unsubscribe   Privacy Policy   Contact Us

American Bar Association | 321 N Clark, Chicago, IL 60654-7598 | 800-285-2221 | 312-988-5522