DEW Executive Director Cheryl Stanton's April 2016 Employment Statement

“It is encouraging to see the large number of people entering the labor force – and finding work. More people are working than ever in our state’s history. South Carolinians are able to take advantage of our robust economy to find a job that allows them to provide for themselves. This bodes well for our future as businesses know that South Carolina is building a pipeline of skilled workers who are prepared to do the job,” said Cheryl Stanton, executive director of the S.C. Department of Employment and Workforce.
