Happy Wednesday! We're over the hump and headed for the weekend. Did you know bison inhabited Charleston when the first settlers landed in 1670? You can still see them at the Charles Towne Landing Animal Forest! <http://www.southcarolinaparks.com/education-kids/animal-forest-at-ctl/default.aspx>

Kimber Cunningham Hoepfer So sad. He has the old people humpy bumpy back

Lisa Wright Fuqua We were just there last week. We love the bear too. He was so cute running back and forth playing with my children. Charles Towne Landing is a beautiful place.
