Leslie Ives Hewitt Glenn Baucom I've been to most of what they offered and we like a few more better. We go to Hamilton Branch on a regular basis but it has not been listed for the last 2 years. We went to Modoc last spring and another Army Corp campground that was offered at a discount. Calhoun Falls is another we never see a discount for.

at 14:35:05 on 12/02/2021 UTC

Jennifer Kinley Leslie Ives Hewitt when does the Army Corp of Engineers offer discounts?

Glenn Baucom It used to be 50% off and we would book up a good bit ... we've been to most on the list ... Calhoun Falls is great they offered it a few years back Leslie Ives Hewitt Jennifer Kinley I just went online last year and was able to get sites for around 21.00 a night. It was the first time I had reserved sites. My husband told me they were more than the state parks normally. I did it on The day last year that the state parks offered their discount.

Angie Chapman Willis Kim Hobbs we have only been to them when we did the Ultimate Outsider. We just bought our camper this year so haven't camped at any of these, but we love camping at the state parks we have camped at and are open to trying any of them once. When we visited for the day I would have to say Lee, Little Pee Dee, Aiken and Poinsett were my least favorites from the list. Kings Mountain, Table Rock and Oconee were my favorites. I say pick 1 or 2 or 4 like us and give it a try for the weekend. You never know you may find a favorite.

Sandy Gooze Favero Kim Hobbs Barnwell is quaint and quiet. Santee was busy but still beautiful. We are going to table Rock this month. And we booked Bakers Creek for this promotion since we absolutely loved Calhoun Falls. And it is near there.
