Subject: RE: Graham Fire Report Request

Good Afternoon,

Thank you for contacting the Ombudsman's Office. Your request for information pursuant to the Freedom of Information Act, S.C. Code § 30-4-10 et. seq., was received on February 19, 2016 and forwarded to the Richland County Emergency Services department for review. Please be advised that § 30-4-30 (b) of the South Carolina Code authorizes a public body to "establish and collect fees" for providing information pursuant to a Freedom of Information Act request. Prior to providing pertinent documentation, we will notify you of any fees associated with your request.

Once all documentation has been compiled and reviewed by the County Legal Department, non-exempt documents will be forwarded to you.

Please feel free to contact our office if we may be of further assistance.

Sincerely,

Ashlay S. Goodwine

Subject: Graham Fire Report Request

Ms. Spivey: Thank you for the professional return call of last week concerning the 207 Woodhaven Rd fire of 2011. I appreciate your professionalism and wealth of knowledge concerning emergency response and investigations in Richland County, South Carolina.

As requested, I look forward to a copy of the investigation conducted by the Richland County Emergency response team. As you are aware, all alleged bogus, false and discriminatory charges against me has been dropped and expunged. As discussed, please forward the investigation to me via flash drive. I am willing to pay for or will provide you with the necessary drive.
