Description/Significant Features:

The single-story Ranch residence stands five bays wide and rests on a brick foundation. The building is clad in brick and topped with a side-gabled asphalt roof. A recessed front door composes the facade's center gable and may be original. Multiple original two-over-two sash are found on all of the building's elevations. A single-bay carport constitutes the building's eastern-most bay and is supported by synthetic columns which rest on a brick half-wall.
