Christian—

The RFP for proposals to privately operate the Sexually Violent Predator Treatment Program has been posted.

With respect to the attached timeline, which was developed by the Budget & Control Board staff and sent to you earlier, the Solicitation reflects that the current deadline for submitting proposals is January 31, 2014, not the estimate of January 7 originally projected. The January 31 deadline could be extended based on questions or issues that arise during the pre-bid process.

Let me know if you have any questions, but we plan to update you as the process continues.

Please find the link to the solicitation and attachments at <http://webprod.cio.sc.gov/SCSolicitationWeb/contractSearch.do?solicitnumber=5400006884>.

On Thursday morning, please carefully review the final published documents and attachments. Due to limitations on the number of characters in the attachment names in the online bidding system, some names may not completely match the original attachment description. The system also does not allow me to order the documents in the list of attachments.

I offer thanks to the consultant Brailsford & Dunlavey, and representatives of the Departments of Corrections, Mental Health, and the Budget & Control Board for contributing to the development of this solicitation.

Now, the next challenge begins...the solicitation, evaluation, and award.

Sincerely,

John R. Stevens, CPPB, CPM
