Dear Governor Nikki Haley, I am a working mother just like you, except one of my children has died and the other is a fine young women. I resently became unemployed from a company that I worked for for 26 years they moved to KY, but I got a temp job threw a temp service. The job shuts down 2 weeks for Christmas every year. I was told I could draw unemployment for the two weeks and when I followed the directions given me by the unemployment office I am now being told I will lose a week of my unemployment, threw no falt of my own, I followed the directions given to me by the unemployment office. As a wife and a woman that runs the home you know just how hard it can be. Also my husband who is 58 1/2 was hurt at home over 1 1/2 years ago and nolonger can work because of his injories and we are having problems drawing his disability. Please is there anything you can do to help me and my husband with these problem.
