

State of South Carolina

Governor's Proclamation

WHEREAS, public works infrastructure, facilities, and services, including water, sewer, roadways, public buildings, and solid waste collection, are of vital importance to the health, safety, and well-being of the people of South Carolina; and

WHEREAS, these essential facilities and services could not be provided without the dedicated efforts of public works professionals, including engineers, administrators, equipment operators, and skilled workers, who help ensure their safe and efficient operation; and

WHEREAS, with the theme Public Works Always There, the 2016 observance of Public Works Week raises awareness of the contributions of public works officials to the planning, design, construction, operation, and maintenance of our public infrastructure and public works services that form the foundations of communities across the state.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Nikki R. Haley, Governor of the great State of South Carolina, do hereby proclaim May 15 - 21, 2016, as throughout the state and encourage all South Carolinians to recognize the positive contributions made by public works officials to the improved quality of life for the people of the Palmetto State.
