Dear Governor Nikki R. Haley

Greetings, my name is Aidan Kurb and I go to Lincoln Ave. Elementary School. You might be wondering why I'm writing this letter to you. Well, I am writing this because I want to tell you how much I like your state of South Carolina, because of the touristy spots that your state offers. I also like it because of the beautiful weather that your state has to offer because it feels very tropical even though it's in the subtropics. Thank you for taking care of this wonderful state.

I am going to tell you about everything I like about your state. I might even include a question or two on your state. I love the palm trees, climate, and weather in this state. Another good thing is the attractions, the people around the attractions, and the food offered throughout the state. I also like the beautiful sunsets by the ocean. A good pro is that it's closer to home than any other state like South Carolina. Two fun places I've been to is Myrtle Beach and Hilton Head Resort. Both of those places are just amazing. Here are a few state questions. Why is the east coast better than the west attraction wise? Also does your state have a national animal that lives only there? About geography, does your state have any geographical wonders? All these questions lead to a very important one. Who is it very bad and poor in the desolate areas of the state? Those were some likes and questions.

- Just wondering governor, how many letters do you get if any? Is being governor fun or just boring? Have you been to most areas of your state or just some areas? Also do you ever get in fights with other governors for various reasons? Do you like Columbia?
