Dear Nikki:

I hope all is going well for you in S. C. Unfortunately I will not be able to meet you at Barbara's fundraiser. Our son and family arrive that night and then we are headed to Myrtle Beach for the week. We should talk at some point.

We still have property in MB but can't build until we win and settle differences. In the meantime we just had a storm and tornado come through and lost many of our trees. It will take a long time to clean up.

Our best hope is to win in November. Both of our states are supporting Trump. Over the years since I have been out of the work force I have been talking to all GOP members here and following along with their advice on candidates. So we shall see. Years ago (pre Obama) I was hoping Condi would run but she said no. She would be a good one to face Hillary but at this point I think the people want to choose their own candidate and that is Trump. Let's pray all goes well at convention and that we win.

Also wanted to mention I voted twice for GW, then Romney. Dems like to think Maryland is their star performer so I am still a nanny. They all love me in that capacity. I think Hogan's hands are tied regarding education for now. National education director also lives here. Obama is helping urban schools but we need to help others as well starting next year.

Gotta run.

Regards,

Lynne DeMinco
