Ranger Chelsea is here today from Redcliffe Plantation! Today she is going to host a shortened version of one of their Discover Carolina school programs and show you inside one of the original slave cabins at the plantation. Watch the video below and learn what life was like back then.

I'm am so disappointed in some of my neighbors. They are having lots of visitors coming in and out of their homes. They are also allowing their children to play together in large groups running all over the neighborhood. This is why we will be in it for long haul. Stay home, follow the suggestions!

Oh... and I know, kids are hard to deal with. I teach, need I say more. Still... Listen! ...stay home!!!!
