OK, there's a v02 out there now. I didn't back up and retouch anything from last night...just continued and tacked on a bunch of additional agencies. I skipped the harder agencies and kinda bypassed the provisos in a sense, since in most cases, I just copied-in my old notes and highlighted them. That said, I still covered a fair amount of ground. Barring any major shenanigans, we should have the agency pages done this week. Anyway, see ya in the morning.

I put a new "Bulletpoints" doc out there tonight. Like I said...I'm not touching the XLS this weekend. So this doc has some notes on the front page, and then after that, it's a handful of agency pages that are ready to be pasted into whatever you pull together this weekend. I haven't had as much time to work as I'd hoped so far this weekend, but I expect I'll get more done tomorrow night.
