NOTE: Due to the long lapse of time the fact that the dower was not renounced in the above conveyance no longer constitutes a defect in the title.

No further conveyances of this property are to be found of record in Richland County. The property was carried on the tax books for a great many years in the name of Amie Clark and The Housing Authority, being informed that both William Clark and Amie Clark, who was his wife, are both dead leaving numerous and unknown heirs, it was determined that it would be necessary to bring a condemnation action to clear the title. An abstract of that action follows:

ENCUMBRANCES

We find no mortgages, judgments, lis pendens, mechanics liens, or other liens, on or affecting the title to the property herein abstracted. There were certain unpaid taxes, both City, and County and State, but the lien of those taxes was removed by the proceeding abstracted as III above. The City Sheriff and the County Tax Collector were both made parties to that proceeding.

OPINION

So far as the records and indices of Richland County show, I am of opinion that The Housing Authority of the City of Columbia, S.C. has a good, fee simple, marketable title to the premises described in the caption.
