I'm a southern born of south Carolina. I support that battle flag as a sign of heritage, pride, and southern independence. And I do not like hearing how just cause someone has pride for their region means they are racist just cause of the flag that they use. In documented history the KKK use Christian, American, and confederate flags in their rallies, yet cause people do not wish to associate the other two flags, they pick on the smaller flag..

I love the South and my heritage. The flag and our heritage belong to folks of ALL races who fought for the South.

My ancestors (23 at present) fought under that flag!! They left their families to defend them from an invading army. Why would they face shot and shell for the ownership of slaves? Why did the Federal government not abolish slavery without going to war, other countries did!
