Planning on heading out to a park today or tomorrow? You can now purchase your admission online and skip the admission booth! Either print your receipt or have it available on your phone. Click on red, green or blue admission (depending on the park you want to visit) or admission for Charles Towne Landing. This will help with social distancing and lessen contact with our staff! Purchase here:

Peter Bendal Kear Honestly I would like to see this as an option permanently.

Valerie Lamott Or just buy a park passport and only worry about admission once a year ;)

Jane Ochsenbein We'll be going to the many beautiful free parks in our community. Millions out of work right now need outdoor spaces they don't have the $$

Mark Green Do you have to pay admission if you are camping or is it included in the camping fee?

Peter Bendal Kear When you pay the camping fee it covers admission. They usually give you a dated hang tag.

Peter Bendal Kear BTW while becoming Ultimate Outsiders we visited a couple other parks while camped out for a few days. We got told the tag from the camping was valid for admission although we also had the park passport. IDK if this is true or not but we were told this at the park we visited not the park we camped at.

Peter Bendal Kear BTW we get the passport but have been known to meet people who do not go often enough to get one for a day at a park. They have actually mentioned this should be an option.
