WIS News 10 Sunday (News)

... and they're trying to revive a massive bond bill which died in the house. the bond package proposes borrowing millions of dollars- mainly for higher education construction projects. governor nikki haley has been adamant that she'd veto any borrowing bill which would raise the state's debt. the senate and the house will also try to find some common ground on bill which would fire but the two groups cannot reach a compromise on how a new board should be hired. they'll head to a conference committee to hammer out their differences ...
