Hi Tony,

You hear it all the time in medicine: treat the cause, not the symptom. In the same way, what if a lack of citizen engagement in government were a symptom of a deeper issue?

With this thought in mind, I'd like to invite you to our next Granicus webinar, Using Technology to Improve Citizen Engagement from the Inside Out. I'll be joined by Trevor Clark, Vice President of Sales at PublicStuff, as we lay out a case for how internal process improvement and change management are the first steps to a better engaged citizenry.

Hope to see you there!
