Questions and Discussions From Caregivers

Q: How can I protect my assets if I am admitted for long-term care?

I want to safeguard my home and other assets in the event I am admitted and then put on Medicaid.

Q: Should we continue to pay off mom's credit card debt?

Should we continue to pay out of pocket, or wait until the estate funds are released and the executorship is established?

Q: Has anyone else noticed that siblings who don't help with caregiving seem to be the most concerned about inheritance?

They have very strong feelings about not helping/visiting, yet paradoxically, they have very strong feelings about the inheritance.

Q: Does durable POA allow me to move Mom from assisted living?

I know my mom will be better cared for in my home and won't be alone as much. But one of the administrators called the state in because they don't want me to move her.

Q: Is it legal and ethical to dip into Mom's savings before she's deceased?

Mom is living in assisted care due to dementia. I have siblings who could use the money and are requesting distributions from her trust.
