Meet

Chelsie & Jaron

- How did you and your partner meet?

We met working at Zaxby's together. We were both cooks in the back and were both extremely shy at the time. We would always look at each other and get the biggest smiles on our faces. After a couple months he asked me out and I've never been happier.

- When did you get engaged?

We got engaged on our four year anniversary, February 24. He took me to Myrtle Beach for the weekend since I was always there when I was little, and took me to the pier. He asked if I wanted to take some photos and turned me around to face out to the ocean. He called my name and when I turned around he was on one knee asking me to marry him.

- What is something you love doing together?

We love to go on adventures together. We've gone to about 8 different states in the past five years and we are always doing something we've never done before. Then we scrapbook our adventures together so we can just sit on the couch and look over them.
