Thanks – it's OK to share with a couple of folks just within the Governor's Office, provided that they honor these same confidentiality provisions, right?

For your review, I have attached a copy of the training section of the voting machines audit. Please remember that the audit has not been published so it is still confidential and can't be disclosed to the public. We would appreciate receiving any comments that you have by Monday, March 11, 2013. We will review your comments and make any needed changes. We will then give you another opportunity to review the section and make any comments which will be published as part of the report. Please call or e-mail me if you have any questions or need additional information. Thank you!

S.C. Code §2-15-120 makes public disclosure of any record of the Legislative Audit Council, with the exception of the final audit report to the General Assembly, a misdemeanor punishable by a fine of not more than $1,000.00 or one year in prison; dismissal from state employment or office; and five years' ineligibility for further state office. The intended recipient of this e-mail has complete responsibility for the confidentiality of the records or information which have been made available and will be held liable under the provisions of §2 15 120 of the 1976 Code of Laws of South Carolina, as amended, for any unauthorized release of any record of the Legislative Audit Council.

Sure – we'd be glad to take a look. I'd like to have our General Counsel have a chance to review and comment. Thanks.

We are completing our review of voting machines in South Carolina. As part of this review, we looked at the training of election officials. Included in this section of the report is a discussion of the removal and replacement of county election commissioners and voter registration board members which is partly the responsibility of the Governor's Office. We would like to offer you the opportunity to review this section of the report and make any comments you would like. Of course we will give you the opportunity for a briefing on the full report when it is due to be published, hopefully by the end of March. Just let me know if you would like to review the training section of the report and we will get it to you. Thank you!
