Governor's Proclamation

WHEREAS, Kiwanis International is one of the largest service organizations in the world with more than 600,000 members of all ages and abilities and locations in over 80 nations; and

WHEREAS, the members of the Carolinas District of Kiwanis International are devoted to improving the world one child and one community at a time by seeking primacy to the human and spiritual rather than the material values of life; and

WHEREAS, in addition to improving lives, Kiwanians promote the development of community leaders, positive role models, intercultural understanding, and cooperation, as well as opportunities for fellowship, personal growth, professional development, and community service; and

WHEREAS, in commemoration of the founding of the first Kiwanis club in Detroit, Michigan, in 1915, Kiwanis International is celebrating its Centennial Anniversary.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Nikki R. Haley, Governor of the great State of South Carolina, do hereby proclaim January 21, 2015, as throughout the state and encourage all South Carolinians to recognize the members of this organization who are providing meaningful service to our homes, schools, and communities.
