Oh I adore you... LOL

Yes, starting this week and next week would be great. Trouble with working on weekend...

Have a great Monday!

Well, we all know the papers are fake news, anyway. I'm glad to arrange this. Does next week mean starting today?

Dr. Danny...

As you may know, I'm assisting Dominion. Yes, Ben and I both are... but he's way more important than I am according to the paper.

If you all are amenable, I would like to set up a meeting with the Lt. Governor with the head of Dominion's VP of South Carolina Operations Dan Weekley to discuss the merger proposal.

If you all are game, give me some dates and times next week and the following week, and I'll get the meeting on Dan's schedule.

Thank you for your consideration.

Me.
