Hi governor Nikki Haley Iam one of the residents of John's Island that was hit by the tornado that came thru September 25th. An unfortunately had a great deal of damage done to my home an again to my unfortunate do not have home owners insurance. I have reached out to the Red Cross and they have done their best and Iam thankful for everything .I have also contacted FEMA but they have inform me that Charleston South Carolina has not been declared for disaster. I'm now reaching out to you to see if you can point me in the direction in which I need to turn for the assistance that's needed to make the nessseary repair to my home Iam thanking you in advanced.
