Good afternoon Katherine,

I hope you are well.

I have attached two proclamation requests for April. Please let me know if you have any questions.

1. Child Abuse Prevention Month (CAP month proclamation for April 2016)- This is a joint request from our office and Children's Trust.

We would like to ask that you mail an original copy to both SCNCAC and Children's Trust for the Child Abuse Prevention Month proclamation.

SCNCAC
PO Box 2195
Columbia, SC 29202

Children's Trust
1330 Lady Street, Suite 310
Columbia, SC 29201

2. Children's Advocacy Center Day (CAC Day proclamation for April 26, 2016)- This is to be sent directly to me at SCNCAC.

SCNCAC
PO Box 2195
Columbia, SC 29202

Thanks for your assistance again this year!

Best,
Kim

WHEREAS: Children's Advocacy Centers (CACs) in South Carolina served 8,128 children in 2015, providing necessary investigative services, victim advocacy, medical evaluations, and mental health treatment services.

WHEREAS, Approximately seventy-seven percent of the children seen at South Carolina's Children's Advocacy Centers in 2015 were twelve years old or younger.

WHEREAS, although neglect is the most common form of child maltreatment, thousands of children in South Carolina also suffer from sexual abuse, physical abuse, and other forms of child maltreatment; and

WHEREAS, ninety percent of child sexual abuse victims know their abuser.

WHEREAS, Children's Advocacy Centers model, promote, and deliver excellence in best practice response to child abuse and prevention through direct service, education, collaboration, and leadership;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Nikki R. Haley, do hereby proclaim April 26, 2015 as in the state of South Carolina and I encourage all South Carolinians to recognize the valuable contributions that Children's Advocacy Centers make to protect children and enhance our response to child abuse.

CHILDREN'S ADVOCACY CENTER DAY
