Thanks for passing this along.

Two things...

- 1) I think she's the world's greatest, I imagine both you and Rob agree.
- 2) I can confirm that she is not 51.

While the most successful Republican pol builds a following by stirring resentment, Haley is proving that Trumpism isn't the only way. South Carolina's Indian-American governor was among the earliest in her party to call out the GOP presidential front-runner, warning against "the siren call of the angriest voices"—in a nationally televised State of the Union response, no less. Last summer, following the massacre of nine African Americans in a Charleston church, Haley engineered the removal of the Confederate flag from state capitol grounds, setting off a movement across the South to pack away the charged symbol.
