Subject: NOT TOO LATE – but Space is Limited: The First Annual Government Identity Fraud Conference

Tick-tock. Tick-tock. Two more victims...

There is a new identity fraud victim every 2 seconds*

Join us at the First Annual Government Identity Fraud Conference

February 2-4, 2016
The Mirage, Las Vegas, Nevada

The first-ever government identity fraud conference will bring together executives from international, federal, state and local government, as well as partners in the private sector, to assess and respond to the growing issue of identity fraud. The event will enable attendees to collaborate and discuss best practices to mitigate identity fraud from policy and tactical perspectives and address how we can best work together across agency and jurisdictional boundaries.

During this two-day conference, distinguished guest speakers will present on the growing issue of identity fraud while offering insights and technologies to combat it.

Current speakers include:

- Frank W. Abagnale
One of the world's most respected authorities on identity theft and inspiration for the feature film "Catch Me If You Can"
- Chris Hansen
Host of Killer Instinct which airs on Investigation Discovery, documenting homicide investigations around the world; former host of NBC's To Catch A Predator
- Ori Eisen
Founder and Chief Innovation Officer at 41st Parameter– the leading online fraud prevention and detection solution for financial institutions and e-commerce and travel merchants
- Eva Casey-Velasquez
President and CEO of the Identity Theft Resource Center, a non-profit organization dedicated to serving victims of identity theft

To prevent and mitigate identity fraud against government, senior government leadership must work with their counterparts in other jurisdictions, agencies and sectors, and we must use new technologies and approaches to fighting these criminals. That's why the underlying theme of our conference is "fight back with analytics, collaboration and policy reform." The keynote speakers and panelists will cover the breadth of topics relating to this crime: the latest approaches deployed by criminals, best practices from government agencies and the most innovative technologies and policies successfully being used to fight this crime.

LexisNexis® Risk Solutions is proud to be the lead organizer – and underwriter – in bringing government and industry leaders around the globe together for this inaugural event. Our goal is to have 150 senior executive attendees.

Best,

Haywood Talcove
CEO, Government
