Tom called me today regarding S. 940 – penny sales tax bill. He shared information and background with me as follows which you may already know:

- The bill is modeled after the Lexington penny sales tax school property tax relief bill passed several years ago.
- Sections were added to the bill as it went through the process to affect Charleston, Horry, Beaufort, Georgetown, and Anderson – to allow those counties to reauthorize a new penny sales tax via referendum.
- He said he is available anytime to answer our staff's questions about this bill and hopes she signs it.
- I told him we would call him if we have questions.
