Dear Governor Haley,

I was pleased to hear that you are considering joining our 4th Annual Women@Bosch National Event. As you have already been informed, this year's event is hosted by the Women@Bosch Charleston network and will be held at Cannon Green in downtown Charleston, South Carolina on Monday, October 3rd from 2 to 6 PM (timing is tentative). I would like to personally invite you to participate as a keynote speaker in this year's exciting event.

Through your experiences as a leader, supporting automotive growth in South Carolina and supporting STEM education in the region, you are an excellent role model for women. I believe that your experience directly correlates with our theme of diversity and inclusion, especially so for this year's event theme: "Developing Women for Success".

It would be an honor for this national group of Bosch associates to hear your view on the key issues, professional advice and opinion of the milestones that influence a woman's life and career. Thank you for considering our invitation and we look forward to hearing from you!

Best regards,
