I would suggest DMV as this would seemingly be a technical question, but adding Austin – he has some information on this.

Should this request be handled from our office or from the DMV?

Subject: Real ID

Brian:

We understand DHS extended South Carolina's deadline for compliance with Real ID until October, along with some other states.

Can someone there outline the specific standards South Carolina currently does not meet in its state-issued identification documents to be in compliance with the Real ID law, please?

We asked Homeland Security --- they deferred to the governor's office.

Thanks,
Roddie
