Hey there. Hope all is going well. Did you make it to Edwin's show? I had my daughters all weekend while their mom was at Family Circle and completely spaced on Sunday night being Edwin's show until after I dropped them off and got on my laptop to do some work.

Thought you'd enjoy the note below☺ and then yesterday we had a guy call and say that he would not be frequenting another restaurant in town that had posted the sign, so for now the score is 1-1☺

Greenville anytime soon? President Clinton speaking tonight at Peace Center for Secretary Riley and The Riley Institute.

Hello, Carl.

My name is Jodi Hajosy and we live here in Greenville. We actually live downtown and eat at several of your restaurants on a regular basis. One of our new favorite restaurants in Greenville is Passerelle Bistro. We ate there not long ago and I noticed that you do not have a sign up prohibiting CWP holders from bringing loaded firearms into your restaurants. We would love to continue patronizing your restaurants, but will not be eating or drinking in establishments where alcohol and guns are allowed. I assure you that it is not an aversion to guns. It is just that we don't believe guns have a place in an establishment where alcohol is served, or where we may be dining on a date or with our children. My husband served 22 years in the US military, so we believe in America and its Amendments, but this law is absurd and unsafe.

Please let me know if you intend to post the signs, as we would really love to continue dining at your establishment.

Fondly,

Jodi Price Hajosy
