#79 on Director Phil's top things to do list: Walk the boardwalk at Woods Bay State Park, through the swamp.....while an alligator watches. www.southcarolinaparks.com/woods-bay

David Teresa Conley He was on the wooden walkway the one time we came the other year, looked like he was looking for a quick lunch:(

Dianne Baxley Hawthorne We just went to walk the boardwalk and my foot went thru the board. Luckily for me I caught myself with the help of my husband. It was scary. I told the ranger women to close it because there was more bad boards. We waited but she didn't go so we just left!! Be careful is all I can say!

Dianne Baxley Hawthorne I talked to the lady at Lee state park and she said it was because of funding.
