Subject: GFOA Distinguished Budget Presentation Award

Here are the program criteria:

I looked on GFOA's website...we didn't get the award in FY09, according to their records. So the question for OSB is...have we sought this award in the past? If so, why did we stop (or did we fail to meet their criteria)? And if we haven't sought it, why not?

It would be nice to have an independent appraisal of the process here...although I took a second look, and they charge a couple hundred bucks for the review, so maybe that's a deal-breaker...don't know. It would be interesting to get OSB's answers regardless, though...
