Nikki, I hope you and your family are doing well. I know these are crazy political times but I hope they work themselves out.

I understand you will be the keynote at the South Carolina Manufacturing expo on April 20-21. Zach, my son, and his company will be in attendance. They work with your economic development team to bring business and jobs to the state. They will be there with their partner Dixon Hughes and Zach would like a few minutes with you if it can work out.

On another note I am forwarding a letter from the CEO of Schaeffler Group which is self explanatory. Seems like something you would do for a major employer in South Carolina.

Let me know if either is possible. I appreciate anything you can do.

Regards,

Kurt Kimball

PS. Bill and Carol are coming for the golf tournament. If you can make for a day would to have you guys

Not sure if this would be appropriate but Mr. Schaeffler sent us the letter if there would be an easy way to Nikki. They want to honor her at a German Global Leadership Ball in NYC in Nov. Pretty big honor with GA Gov presenting last year to Ginny Rometty of IBM.

Anyway- if this is not the right channel to use I can certainly tell them so.

Thanks, Zach
