Ever visited an old cemetery? Do you ever wonder about the lives of the people buried there? This grave marker is one at the Gist family cemetery near Rose Hill Plantation. Who was Ellen Douglas Gist? Learn more about her and see this lovely original portrait of Ellen on our Gist mansion guided tour. For a schedule & info: <http://southcarolinaparks.com/rosehill>

Dyanne Gist Ratliff Bless u, Beth Ratliff Cohen! I've been there twice. Just loved it, on my first visit, I met an old man who had been born at the plantation, when I signed my name, Dyanne Gist Ratliff, he told me about his life there! It was just amazing! Love u for printing this, I think Jim & I r gonna go on Sept 10th to their Labor Party. ☺
