Governor's Proclamation

WHEREAS, congenital disorders of glycosylation (CDG) is a term for a group of rare, genetic metabolic disorders that can potentially affect the nervous and multiple organ systems; and

WHEREAS, symptoms of the disorders vary widely depending on the specific gene that is defective; and

WHEREAS, while CDG is often misdiagnosed, an early diagnosis is important for more effective management of symptoms and better outcomes for the patient.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Nikki R. Haley, Governor of the great State of South Carolina, do hereby proclaim May 16, 2016, as

throughout the state and encourage all South Carolinians to work together to raise awareness of these disorders and to recognize the people they affect.
