Has there been any word as to when the beach front camping at Edisto Beach will be open? Also, when will the reservations for this site be available? My group likes to camp there over the new years (always on the beach at midnight) but missed it last year. We would love to try and get out there this year as is our tradition. Thank you.

According to our website: The oceanfront campground will remain closed while undergoing repairs and is expected to open in September 2017. Reservations have not opened yet for this campground. Please stay tuned to our social media and website, as they will be updated as we have more information:
