Re: Lisa and Art Martin would like to present Governor Haley one of their "hand cut, hand poured, handmade" candles. Carolina Wren is a small business located in Florence, SC, and they are proud to offer a product, not only of value, but one we believe represents the essence of South Carolina. Their candles are currently available in the State House gift shop and starting in July will be available at the Cotton Mill Exchange gift shop in the State Museum.

Attendees: Lisa Martin, Art Martin, and their son, Robert Watkins.
