Rob and Austin,

This is the list of corporate donations we've compiled so far. I asked Lisa for a list of donations from her members, which prompted the CVS response. I don't have theirs yet, but as you can see, we're up to $3.6 million in donations we're aware of, and that does not include the amounts for all in-kind donations. So if N wanted to use an overall number, I think she could say we are at close to $4 million in corporate donations and in-kind gifts.

Good morning, Rob. It was good to see you, Tim and Katherine Friday night at Za's!

Lisa McGill Sweatman relayed the message that the Governor is looking for a report from retailers regarding impact of the flood and also numbers/$$ of donations. My corp comm team is asking about the deadline for this information and how the governor will use the information, i.e. Press conference, press release, published report, etc.

Please advise and we'll try to get the information ASAP! Thank you for the awesome work and diligence during this tough time. I'm very proud of our state and the governor's (and your team's) response.
