EXECUTIVE ORDER No.

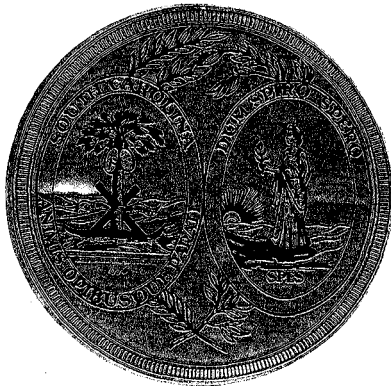

99-01

WHEREAS, the State of South Carolina has a long and proud heritage of honoring its elected officials during official ceremonies.

WHEREAS, during the second week of January 1999, groups of citizens and elected officials will be meeting in Columbia to participate in this year's ceremonies.

WHEREAS, the South Carolina National Guard has the personnel and equipment to provide both administrative and support services during the above-mentioned ceremonies.

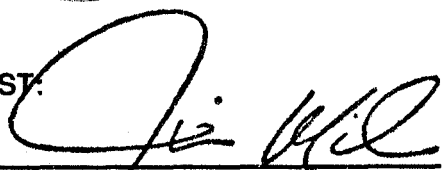

NOW, THEREFORE, by virtue of the authority vested in me by the Constitution and Statutes of the State of South Carolina, I hereby direct the Adjutant General to call to State Active Duty adequate personnel to provide needed support services that will contribute to the orderly and safe conduct of ceremonies for the transition of Governors of South Carolina

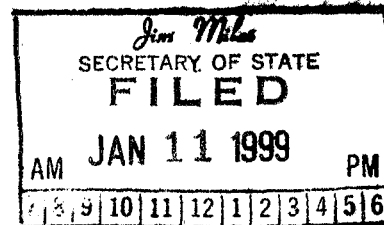

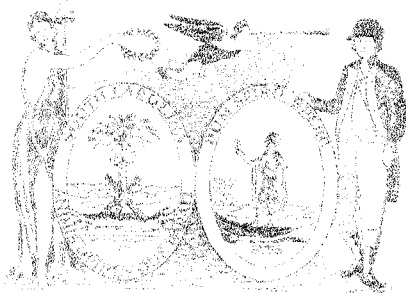

GIVEN UNDER MY HAND AND THE GREAT SEAL OF THE STATE OF SOUTH CAROLINA, THIS 8TH DAY OF JANUARY 1999.

WHEREAS, on January 9, 1999 at 2:30 a.m. I was advised that Clarendon County's volunteer fire service had publicly declared to the County Council and community that they would no longer provide fire and rescue response; and

WHEREAS, the citizens of Clarendon County, and several municipalities therein are dependent upon volunteer fire personnel for the protection of their lives and property; and

WHEREAS, it was determined that Clarendon County no longer had adequate fire protection services to protect the lives and property of the citizens of Clarendon County.

NOW THEREFORE, pursuant to the powers conferred upon me by the Constitution and Laws of the State of South Carolina, I hereby direct that certain assets of the South Carolina National Guard, at the discretion of the Adjutant General, be placed on state duty and order the utilization of the National Guard's fire suppression personnel to take all necessary action to provide Clarendon County with emergency fire suppression and rescue services until local authorities are able to resume the delivery of these critical services.

WHEREAS, the uninterrupted supply of Liquefied Petroleum Gas as (propane) to residential and commercial establishments is an essential need of the public during the wintertime and any interruption threatens the public welfare; and

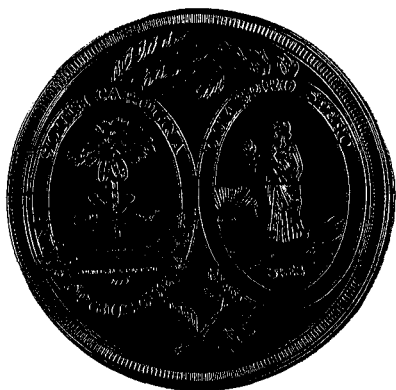

WHEREAS, the continued period of cold weather has increased the demand for Liquefied Petroleum Gas and threatened the uninterrupted delivery of Liquefied Petroleum Gas to residential and commercial customers; and

WHEREAS, the Federal Motor Carrier Safety regulations, 49 CFR 390 et. Seq., limit the hours operators of commercial vehicles may drive;

WHEREAS, 49 CFR 390.23 allows the Governor to suspend these rules and regulations for 30 days if the Governor determines that an emergency condition exists.

NOW THEREFORE, pursuant to the powers conferred upon me by the Constitution and Laws of the State of South Carolina and of the United States of America, I hereby declare a State of Emergency due to the cold weather and the need to continue the uninterrupted supply of Liquefied Petroleum Gas. This emergency justifies an exemption from Parts 390 through 399 of Title 49 of the Code of Federal Regulations. This emergency shall remain in effect for thirty days or until the emergency condition ceases to exist, whichever is less.

Nothing herein shall be construed as an exemption from the Commercial Driver's License requirements in 49 CFR 383, the Financial requirements in 49 CFR 387, or applicable Federal Size and Weight limitations.

WHEREAS, South Carolina Code § 12-21-2734 requires any person subject to the payment of tax for maintaining coin-operated devices for use in this state to apply for a license from the South Carolina Department of Revenue (hereinafter referred to as the "Department of Revenue") for two years for the privilege of making use of the machine(s) in South Carolina; and

WHEREAS, South Carolina Code § 12-21-2804(D) states that no owner, operator, or marketer of machines authorized under South Carolina Code § 12-21-2720(A)(3) (hereinafter referred to as "Class III" machines) may be issued a permit by the Department of Revenue for machines described in South Carolina Code § 12-21-2720(A)(3) unless the owner, operator, or marketer has been a resident of the State for two years; and

WHEREAS, Section 12-21-2804(D) also provides that the Department of Revenue shall require all applicants for such licenses to file a statement of residency as part of the application process on forms and in a manner the Department of Revenue considers appropriate; and

WHEREAS, Section 12-21-2791 requires the owner/operators of Class III video game machines to limit cash payouts per location in any twenty-four (24) hour period; and

WHEREAS, Section 12-21-2776 requires the owner/operators of Class III video game machines to keep detailed records about the machines, including but not limited to the payouts to players, the gross profit, and the percentage of net profits divided between the owners and the locations; and

WHEREAS, owner/operators of Class III video game machines are otherwise subject to detailed regulation by the State of South Carolina; and

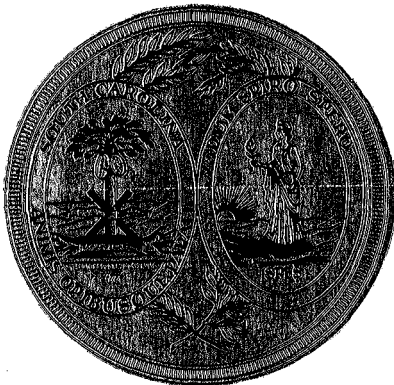

WHEREAS, it is vital to the citizens of this state that the State of South Carolina deter criminals who might attempt to evade laws regulating the video gaming industry from applying for video gaming licenses; and

WHEREAS, the South Carolina Law Enforcement Division (SLED) has the capability to perform background checks to determine if an applicant for a Class III video game machine license has been convicted of a crime or is subject to an arrest warrant;

NOW, THEREFORE, I hereby direct the Department of Revenue to provide SLED with the names of all applicants (including but not limited to the principal owners, partners, or officers of any business entity applicants) for Class III video game machine licenses in South Carolina as well as any other identifying information necessary for the purpose of conducting a criminal background check on such applicants.

I further hereby direct SLED to conduct criminal background checks on such applicants to determine which applicants for Class III video game machine licenses, if any, have criminal convictions or are subject to arrest warrants, and further hereby authorize SLED to utilize the results of such background checks in its law enforcement efforts to the extent otherwise permitted by law.

This Order shall take effect immediately.

WHEREAS, there is a need to bring together the principal agencies involved in the development and implementation of environmental policy at the State level to work on major environmental policy issues in a more coordinated, cooperative and comprehensive manner instead of a piecemeal, agency-by-agency approach; and

WHEREAS, the citizens of the State of South Carolina need their state agencies to collaborate and cooperate fully to identify the major environmental issues facing the State of South Carolina;

NOW, THEREFORE, I hereby establish the Interagency Council on Natural Resources Policy (hereinafter referred to as "the Council"), which shall have the following duties and responsibilities:

- a. To assist the Governor's Office and the General Assembly in identifying the major environmental issues facing the State for the purpose of assisting the Governor and the General Assembly in developing a comprehensive environmental policy; and
- b. To prepare policies and reports on environmental issues at the direction of the Governor, such reports to include recommendations to the Governor, the General Assembly, and agency governing boards or commissions; and

- c. To ensure that the affected agencies of State government collaborate and cooperate fully to handle priority environmental issues identified by the Governor and the General Assembly; and
- d. On behalf of and with the participation of the participating agencies, to periodically assess and report to the Governor, the General Assembly and the citizens of the State of South Carolina on the state of South Carolina's environment; and
- e. To develop action plans for the consideration of the Governor, the General Assembly and state agencies to address major environmental problems, issues, or needs identified during its deliberations.

It is further provided that the Council shall have the following voting members:

- a. The Governor, or his designee; and
- b. The Director of the Department of Health and Environmental Control, or his designee; and
- c. The Director of the Department of Natural Resources, or his designee; and
- d. The Commissioner of the Department of Agriculture, or his designee; and
- e. The Director of the Department of Parks, Recreation and Tourism; and
- f. The State Forester.

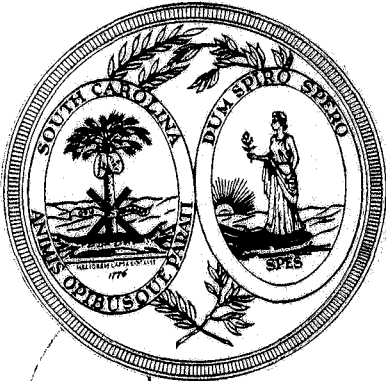

It is further provided that the Council shall have the following non-voting members:

- a. The Secretary of Commerce, or his designee; and
- b. The Director of the Department of Revenue; and
- c. The Executive Director of the Department of Transportation.

It is further provided that the Council shall select two non-voting advisory members from each of the following categories for one-year terms:

- a. Environmental interest organizations; and
- b. Scientists from the environmental programs or science departments from public universities in the State.

(d) foster interagency and intergovernmental project funding and management that share staff, budgets, information resources, and facilities;

(e) provide a forum that encourages innovation and creativity in the application of information resources and stimulates defining and resolving barriers to efficient and effective development, use and sharing of information resources among public, private, national, state and local interests;

(f) provide leadership and guidance in the continued development of integrated statewide networks that cost-effectively facilitate sharing of and access to information, computing and communications resources;

(g) oversee, coordinate, and improve the delivery of services to the general public and to the private sector by expanding government's use of technology; and

(h) provide advice on policy issues related to technology.

2. The Information Resources Council of South Carolina shall consist of fifteen members.

(a) Governor shall appoint:

- i. Three members representing regional, county and municipal governments;
- ii. Two members representing business/programmatic/technology interests within state agencies or institutions;
- iii. One member representing academic or research interests;
- iv. Five members representing the private sector; and
- v. One member representing the Office of the Governor.

(b) In addition, the Council shall include:

- i. Two members representing the General Assembly, one member appointed by the President Pro Tempore of the Senate and one member appointed by the Speaker of the House of Representatives; and,
- ii. One member representing the Budget and Control Board to be appointed by the Executive Director.

3. The Council to be appointed shall reflect a cross-section of the functional areas of government.

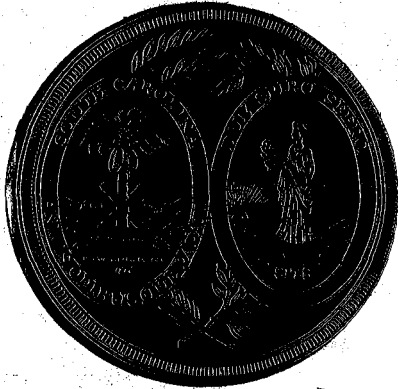

AND FURTHER, the membership plan shall have a system for sub-committees and work groups that will draw upon government agencies and special membership groups so as to bring to bear all available expertise on issues the Council addresses;

4. The Office of the Executive Director of the State Budget and Control Board shall provide the Council with such primary support and resources as it may request and as he deems proper; including requesting that State agencies cooperate fully with the council and provide staff support, as needed; directing the State's Information Technology Advisory Committee to make recommendations to the Council regarding its proposed information technology resources planning, policies, procedures, standards, etc.; and appointing a secretary to coordinate and direct all staff support.

5. The Council shall submit to the Office of the Governor, annually, a report on the State's technology inventory, including its infrastructure, workforce, management, critical applications, goals and objectives, along with a report documenting the information resource strategies promulgated by the Council and progress-to-date on their implementation.

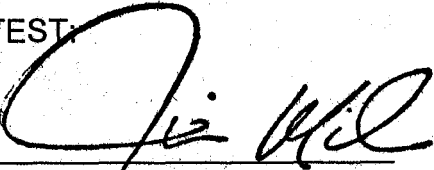

UPON CONSIDERATION AND EVALUATION OF THE COUNCIL'S ANNUAL REPORTS AND RECOMMENDATIONS, I will consult with the Council concerning such further action as is appropriate.

WHEREAS, the State of South Carolina is vulnerable to a wide range of emergencies, including natural, technological, and manmade disasters, all of which threaten the life, health, and safety of its people; damage and destroy property; disrupt services and everyday business and recreational activities; and impede economic growth and development; and

WHEREAS, this vulnerability is exacerbated by the state's growing population, especially the growth in the number of persons residing in coastal areas, in the elderly population, in the number of seasonal vacationers, and the number of persons with special needs; and

WHEREAS, the state must take all prudent action to reduce the vulnerability of the people and property of this state; to prepare for the efficient evacuation and shelter of threatened or affected persons; to provide for the rapid and orderly provision of relief to persons and for the restoration of services and property; and to provide for the coordination of activities relating to emergency preparedness, response, recovery, and mitigation among and between agencies and officials of this state, with similar agencies and officials of other states, with local and federal governments, with interstate organizations, and with the private sector; and

WHEREAS, the Governor is responsible for the development and coordination of a system of Comprehensive Emergency Management pursuant to the South Carolina Code of Laws, Section 25-1-440 (b) and the South Carolina Emergency Preparedness Division,

Office of the Adjutant General, as established by Section 25-1-420, is responsible for coordinating the efforts of all state, county and municipal agencies and departments in developing a State Emergency Plan and maintaining a State Emergency Operations Center; and

WHEREAS, the South Carolina Emergency Operations Plan, dated February 1, 1999, developed pursuant to the requirement of Section 25-1-420 (a), has been reviewed and approved in accordance with the South Carolina Code of Regulations, 58-101.B., as establishing the policies and procedures to be followed by South Carolina Government in executing all emergency or disaster operations.

NOW, THEREFORE, pursuant to the powers conferred upon me by the Constitution and laws of the State of South Carolina, I do hereby order:

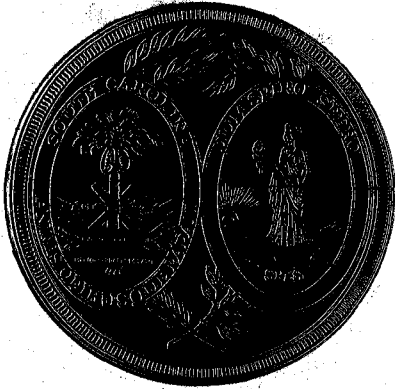

Section 1. That each department or agency of the State shall be responsible for emergency services as assigned in the South Carolina Emergency Operations Plan.

Section 2. That each department or agency assigned a primary responsibility in the Plan shall maintain, as directed by the Emergency Preparedness Division, comprehensive standard operating procedures for executing its assigned emergency services. Each department or agency assigned a support responsibility shall assist the primary department or agency in maintenance of these procedures.

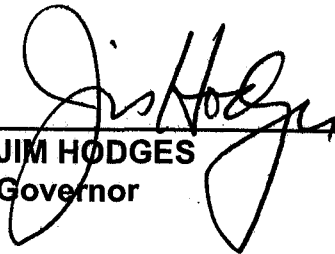

Section 3. That each department or agency assigned a primary or support responsibility in the Plan shall participate in scheduled exercises of the South Carolina Emergency Preparedness Division and shall conduct training of personnel essential to the implementation of all assigned emergency functions.

Section 4. That all departments or agencies shall execute, without delay, the emergency functions so designated in the Plan or further ordered by me during any emergency or disaster through the initial use of existing agency appropriations and all necessary agency personnel, regardless of normal duty assignment.

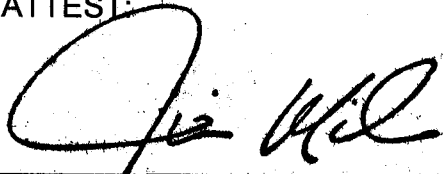

Section 5. Executive Order 95-21 is hereby rescinded.

Office of the Governor

EXECUTIVE ORDER No.

99-18

WHEREAS, the State of South Carolina has empowered the Governor to appoint at his discretion such additional deputies, constables, security guards and detectives as he may deem necessary to assist in the detection of crime and the enforcement of the criminal laws of this State under Section 23-1-60 of the South Carolina Code of Laws ("Code"); and

WHEREAS, there exist certain obligations and responsibilities that must be followed before an individual may appoint a deputy, constable, security guard or detective; and

WHEREAS, the Chief of the South Carolina Law Enforcement Division (SLED) may prescribe such law enforcement training before an appointment shall be made; and

WHEREAS, it is in the interest of the State to ensure that individuals are competent and receive adequate training to perform such duties that are required of the individual so appointed; and

WHEREAS, those individuals appointed are granted law enforcement authority and should, therefore, be given the necessary training to ensure compliance with the laws of this State and to better serve the public; and

WHEREAS, such authority vested in these individuals is statewide, and is granted for the purpose of assisting law enforcement, appointments should be limited to those individuals who require such statewide authority and for the purpose of assisting law enforcement; and

WHEREAS, the undersigned has determined that Executive Order 90-08 must be modified in certain particulars.

NOW, THEREFORE, pursuant to the powers conferred upon me by the Constitution and laws of the State of South Carolina, no person shall be appointed or certified as a deputy, constable, security guard or detective pursuant to Section 23-1-60 of the Code, except in accordance with the policies and procedures adopted by SLED and approved by the Governor. These policies and procedures may be amended from time to time without the issuance of a new Executive Order. The policies and procedures, as amended, shall be made available to all applicants. Failure to abide by these procedures will subject the applicant to denial of an appointment and/or immediate revocation of his commission as a deputy, constable, security guard and/or detective by the Governor as granted under Section 23-1-60 of the Code.

This Order shall take effect immediately.

WHEREAS, the citizens of this State have called upon their State government for greater leadership and assistance in combating the problem of litter in this State; and

WHEREAS, litter casts a blight on the natural beauty of this State and evidences a disregard for the responsibility of all citizens to preserve and protect the State's natural resources; and

WHEREAS, there is a need to develop and implement a comprehensive approach to anti-litter efforts that takes advantage of the numerous resources of State government, as well as the resources available to business and community leaders.

NOW, THEREFORE, I hereby establish the Task Force on Litter (hereinafter referred to as "the Task Force"), that shall have duties and responsibilities that include the following:

- Encouraging anti-litter education efforts; and
- Assisting state and local law enforcement agencies in efforts to stem the flow of litter on the streets and highways; and
- Devising strategies to maximize the use of prison work crews to collect litter; and

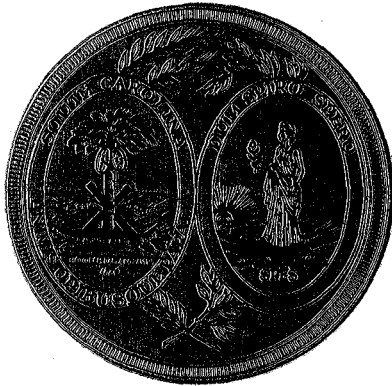

- Facilitating the use of community-based service programs to combat litter; and
- Identifying existing governmental and private efforts to avoid the duplication of efforts and to ensure the efficient use of resources to combat litter; and
- Devising strategies to increase the recycling of litter materials; and
- Serving as a clearinghouse of information on existing and proposed litter programs; and
- Proposing action plans for the consideration of the Governor, the General Assembly and State agencies to address the litter problem in this State.

FURTHER, it is hereby provided that Senator David Thomas of Greenville shall serve as the Chairman of the Task Force, and that the Task Force shall have the following additional voting members:

- The Director of the Department of Probation, Parole and Pardon, or his designee; and
- The Director of the Department of Corrections, or his designee; and

No. 99-33

WHEREAS, the economic well-being of South Carolina's citizens is a matter of paramount public interest, and

WHEREAS, for South Carolina to prosper in the 21st century it must become a recognized leader in attracting, creating, growing, and retaining world class technology-intensive companies, and

WHEREAS, the 1997 report Strategies for Developing a Knowledge-based Economy defined the strategic direction needed to nurture a knowledge-based economy in South Carolina, and

WHEREAS, implementing bold new strategies will require leadership, vision, and a passion for achieving sustainable results which can be accomplished only through strong partnerships involving industry, schools, institutions of higher learning, and government.

NOW, THEREFORE, I hereby call upon the South Carolina Technology Alliance, a public/private partnership sharing my vision for the future in this vital area, to develop and create South Carolina Technology Initiative 2000, a comprehensive plan addressing policy, legislation, and funding initiatives which will lead South Carolina boldly into the 21st century.

MOREOVER, South Carolina Technology Initiative 2000 should concentrate on strategies which will:

- (1) create new academic programs at our State's research universities to address critical shortages of technology-intensive workers for industries identified by the South Carolina Department of Commerce,
- (2) increase the length and academic content of value-added Special Schools training programs up to the associate degree level through the nationally recognized State Board for Technical and Comprehensive Education,
- (3) promote technology careers, and
- (4) provide for stronger linkages between South Carolina's colleges, universities, and research institutions and the state's businesses and industries.

IN ADDITION, the report should address initiatives which will:

- (1) promote the growth of technology-related businesses,
- (2) stimulate research and development, and
- (3) expand the infrastructure required to support increasingly complex and sophisticated technology-based operations.

FURTHERMORE, the South Carolina Department of Commerce is hereby authorized to allocate or reallocate, to the extent possible, funds to any South Carolina research university for the purpose of creating and enhancing academic programs which address critical shortages of trained workers in technology-related fields and to the South Carolina Technical and Comprehensive Education System to support high technology Special Schools training programs.

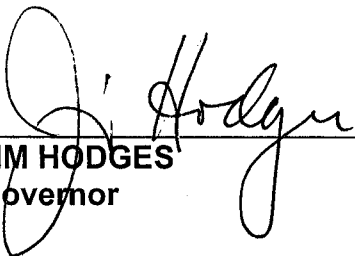

IT IS FURTHER DIRECTED that all state agencies, public schools, and institutions of higher learning place a high priority on cooperating and providing assistance to the Alliance, and to the extent possible, state agencies may allocate or reallocate existing funds, to the extent possible, for the express purpose of enhancing or facilitating those initiatives identified by the South Carolina Technology Alliance as critical to the development of a globally competitive, knowledge-based economy for South Carolina. In addition, business, industry, and other organizations are strongly encouraged to support and assist the Alliance in this important endeavor.

South Carolina Technology Initiative 2000 should be presented to the Governor, State Senate, and House of Representatives by December 1, 1999.

EXECUTIVE ORDER No.

No. 99-38

WHEREAS, the education of our children is an issue fundamental to South Carolina's future and its quality of life; and

WHEREAS, the State of South Carolina has taken bold steps in reform and accountability, the success of which depend on the quality of the teachers in our schools and the training and support they receive; and

WHEREAS, our State must continue to improve its primary, secondary, and higher education systems.

NOW, THEREFORE, by virtue of the powers conferred upon me by the Constitution and Statutes of the State, I hereby create the South Carolina Commission on Teacher Quality, which is to serve as a body for reviewing issues concerning the training, recruitment, retention, and continuing education of a quality teaching force. The initial members of the Commission are listed in the Attachment to this Order, which is hereby incorporated by reference.

EXECUTIVE ORDER NO. 99-38

The Commission will be chaired by Senator Nikki Setzler, and co-chaired by State Superintendent Inez Tenenbaum, and Larry Wilson, President of Policy Management Systems Corporation.

The other members of the Commission are as follows:

Rep. Ronny Townsend, Chair of House Education and Public Works Committee

No. 99-39

WHEREAS, one-quarter to one-third of middle grades students are not currently achieving academically at minimum standards; and

WHEREAS, the people of South Carolina have expressed their insistence that all students achieve at high standards competitive with national and world expectations; and

WHEREAS, the middle grades are the last opportunity to prepare students for the academic standards of high school; and

WHEREAS, the middle grades are a critical time regarding development of good character, strong work habits, and personal responsibility; and

WHEREAS, many middle grades students initiate risk-taking behaviors.

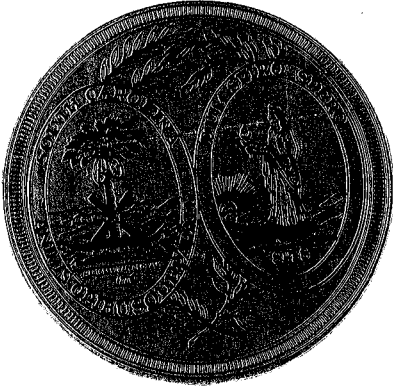

NOW, THEREFORE, by virtue of the powers conferred upon me by the Constitution and Statutes for the State, I hereby create the South Carolina Middle Grades Task Force to address quality teacher training and professional development, academic rigor in curriculum and instruction, effective organization of middle grade schools, parent involvement, and prevention of risk-taking behaviors.

The Middle Grades Task Force shall be charged with analyzing current shortcomings and recommending ways to:

1. Enhance the pre-service and continuing preparation of teachers to promote academic rigor, personal development, and responsible behavior among students.
2. Strengthen the cadre of middle school principals through recruitment, training, licensure, and other measures.
3. Achieve academic rigor in middle grades schools and promote academic success for all middle grades students, with special attention to effective curriculum and instruction in the core subjects assessed through the Palmetto Achievement Challenge Tests (PACT).
4. Organize middle grades schools to enhance faculty teamwork and overall effectiveness in promoting academic rigor, personal development, and responsible behavior among middle grades students.
5. Engage families as full partners in the educational and personal development of their children.
6. Prevent risk-taking behaviors through family-school-community partnerships

It is further ordered that the Middle Grades Task Force shall provide a preliminary report on its findings and recommendations to the Governor for his consideration and review no later than December 1, 1999, and a final report no later than September 1, 2000. To assist in the implementation of its charge pursuant to his Order, the Commission may create such advisory committees or subcommittees as it deems necessary and shall appoint a staff working group of persons with expertise from all organizations whose contributions are necessary to develop excellent middle grades schools.

EXECUTIVE ORDER NO.

No. 99-44

WHEREAS, the coastline of the State of South Carolina has been placed under a hurricane watch by the National Weather Service; and

WHEREAS, Hurricane Floyd represents a serious threat to the health, safety, and well-being of the residents and visitors to significant portions of the State, particularly the coastal areas; and

WHEREAS, effective at noon today, I hereby declare that a State of Emergency exists within the State; and

WHEREAS, I hereby declare that all state and local government agencies perform all emergency functions as assigned in the Emergency Operations Plan or as directed by the Director of the South Carolina Emergency Preparedness Division during this State of Emergency.

NOW THEREFORE, by the virtue of the power and authority vested in me as Governor pursuant to the Constitution and the laws of South Carolina, I hereby order a mandatory evacuation of all persons located on barrier islands; on beachfront property; near low-lying rivers, creeks, or streams; and in manufactured housing; in the following counties: Jasper, Beaufort, Hampton, Colleton, Charleston, Berkeley, Dorchester, Georgetown, and Horry. Persons in inland counties near the projected path of Hurricane Floyd should take all precautions to ensure their protection from potential high winds. Area specific details for the mandatory evacuation follow:

1. In Beaufort County, the entire county.
2. In Colleton County, south of alternate Highway 17 and south of the Iron Crossroads and Cottageville Communities.
3. In Jasper County, east of I-95; and areas west of I-95 and south of Bagshaw Swamp and the Coosawhatchie area north of Taylor Mill Road (CR175) and east of Loghaul Road (CR39).
4. In Charleston County, the West Ashley area with the exception of areas in and Northwest of the town of Ravenel, Hollywood and Meggett; the Charleston Peninsula and the Charleston Neck area southeast of Cosgrove Avenue. In North Charleston, all areas west of I-26 and south of Montague Avenue; the remaining areas between Dorchester Road and the Ashley River; and all areas East of the Cooper River.
5. In Georgetown County, east of US 701 from the Georgetown/Horry county boundary to Highway 4 to include all areas east of the Intracoastal Waterway on the Waccamaw Neck and all areas east of Highway 17 from Georgetown City to the Georgetown/Charleston county boundary.
6. In Horry County, all persons east of the Intracoastal Waterway.

This mandatory evacuation order is effective at noon today. The scope of this Order may be expanded to include such areas inland as are identified on a county-by-county basis by local emergency preparedness officials for people who are deemed to be in immediate danger. However, hospitals administrators may elect to shelter in place essential personnel and patients who cannot be moved pursuant to the approved evacuation plan for each facility, after consultation with emergency preparedness personnel, and appropriate health care professionals.

I further order that all licensing and registration requirements regarding out-of-state private security personnel or companies who are contracted with or assisting companies in protecting and restoring essential or vital services in South Carolina be suspended, and that the State Law Enforcement Division shall initiate an emergency registration process for those personnel or companies for the duration of this State of Emergency in a manner deemed appropriate by the Chief of the State Law Enforcement Division.

WHEREAS, a state of emergency has been declared (Executive Order 99-44) in South Carolina due to the hazardous conditions created by Hurricane Floyd; and

WHEREAS, Sections 1-3-410 through 1-3-460, as well as Section 25-1-440, confer upon the Governor extraordinary powers to take measures necessary to maintain peace and order; and

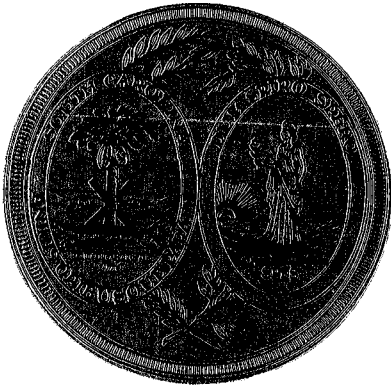

WHEREAS, there is a danger that certain persons in the areas threatened by Hurricane Floyd will charge prices for food and other essentials far in excess of that normally charged which results in people, particularly lower income persons, from being able to purchase necessities, threatens the well-being of the population, tends to cause a breach of the peace, and endangers the peace and good order of the areas threatened by the hurricane.

NOW, THEREFORE, by virtue of the power and authority vested in me as Governor, pursuant to the Constitution and the laws of South Carolina, I do hereby direct and compel that no person may overcharge for food, fuel, shelter, items used for the protection of life or property, clothing and other living essentials in the State of South Carolina.

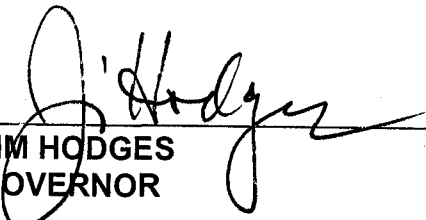

For purpose of this Executive Order "overcharging" shall be defined as charging for goods or services rendered which are substantially in excess of reasonable and customary charges in this state or in applicable cases substantially in excess of the person's costs for such goods or services, unless there is good cause for the bills or requests containing the charges or costs.

Violation of this Executive Order shall submit the person making the charges liable for the criminal penalties specified in Code Section 16-7-10.

OF SEPTEMBER, 1999.

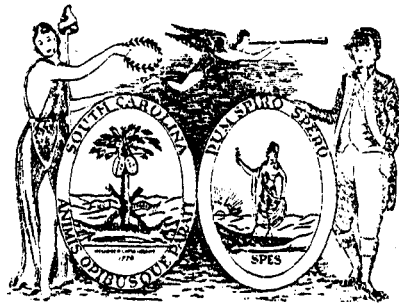

JIM HODGES

Attest:

SECRETARY OF STATE

State of South Carolina
Executive Department

Office of the Governor

EXECUTIVE ORDER No.

No. 99-54

WHEREAS, BY EXECUTIVE ORDER 99-51, I AUTHORIZED SENATOR ARTHUR RAVENEL, JR. TO CONDUCT AN INVESTIGATION INTO THE TRAFFIC CONGESTION PROBLEMS OF SEPTEMBER 14, 1999, ON INTERSTATE 26; AND

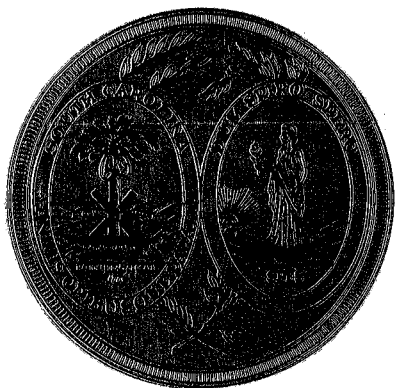

WHEREAS, TRAFFIC CONGESTION ALSO OCCURRED IN OTHER COASTAL AREAS ON SEPTEMBER 14, 1999, AS A RESULT OF THE MANDATORY EVACUATION ORDER; AND

WHEREAS, THE POSSIBILITY THAT CITIZENS WILL FAIL TO HEED MANDATORY EVACUATION ORDERS DUE TO TRAFFIC CONGESTION IS A DANGEROUS RISK THAT APPLIES TO ALL COASTAL AREAS OF SOUTH CAROLINA.

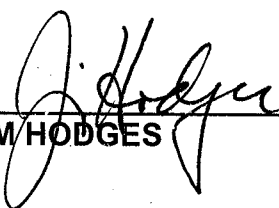

NOW, THEREFORE, I HEREBY EXPAND THE SCOPE OF SENATOR RAVENEL'S INVESTIGATION TO INCLUDE AN INVESTIGATION INTO THE TRAFFIC CONGESTION PROBLEMS OF SEPTEMBER 14, 1999, OF THE ENTIRE COAST OF SOUTH CAROLINA, AND FURTHER AUTHORIZE HIM TO DESIGNATE SUCH INDIVIDUALS AS ARE NECESSARY TO ASSIST HIM WITH THE INVESTIGATION.

I FURTHER HEREBY RESCIND ANY AND ALL TERMS OF EXECUTIVE ORDER 99-51 THAT ARE INCONSISTENT WITH THIS EXECUTIVE ORDER.

ALL OTHER TERMS OF EXECUTIVE ORDER 99-51 SHALL REMAIN IN FULL FORCE AND EFFECT.

GIVEN UNDER MY HAND AND THE GREAT SEAL OF THE STATE OF SOUTH CAROLINA, THIS 24th DAY
OF SEPTEMBER, 1999.

EXECUTIVE ORDER NO.

No. 99-55

WHEREAS, a state of emergency has been declared (Executive Order 99-44) in South Carolina due to the hazardous conditions created by Hurricane Floyd; and

WHEREAS, Sections 1-3-410 through 1-3-460, as well as Section 25-1-440, confer upon the Governor extraordinary powers to take measures necessary to maintain peace and order; and

WHEREAS, high water on the Waccamaw River and its tributaries resulting from Hurricane Floyd has created a danger to public safety and private property due to debris and hazardous currents; and

WHEREAS, I previously prohibited all watercraft operations on the Waccamaw River and its tributaries between the North Carolina/South Carolina border south to its intersection with the Atlantic Intracoastal Waterway, except for law enforcement and emergency personnel, and those persons living in residences in the affected area reachable only by water; and

WHEREAS, the United States Coast Guard has closed the Atlantic Intracoastal Waterway from the U.S. 501 bridge south to marker 27 at Enterprise Landing due to flooding from Hurricane Floyd.

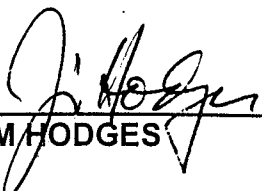

NOW, THEREFORE, I hereby extend the prohibitions on watercraft operations imposed by Executive Order 99-53 to include the Atlantic Intracoastal Waterway from the U.S. 501 bridge south to marker 27 at Enterprise Landing. This closure applies to all vessels, recreational and commercial, with the exception of law enforcement and emergency vessels, and those persons living in residences in the affected area reachable only by water.

Except as modified by this Executive Order, the prohibitions imposed by Executive Order 99-53 shall remain in full force and effect.

Office of the Governor

EXECUTIVE ORDER NO.

No. 99-56

WHEREAS, the heavy rains that Hurricane Floyd brought to coastal areas in South Carolina and North Carolina have spawned extensive flooding in Georgetown, Horry and Marion counties; and

WHEREAS, the flooding of these areas leaves them susceptible to disease, looting and other public health and safety concerns; and

WHEREAS, Sections 1-3-410 through 460 of the South Carolina Code of Laws (1976), as amended, confer upon the Governor separate and distinct powers to take such measures necessary to maintain peace and order; and

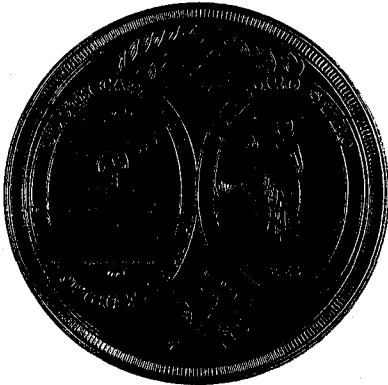

WHEREAS, Section 25-1-440 and Sections 25-1-1820 through 1900 authorize the Governor to order out the South Carolina National Guard in case of danger to persons or property by force and violence and in the event of public disaster.

NOW, THEREFORE, by virtue of the power and authority vested in me as Governor pursuant to the South Carolina Constitution and the South Carolina Code of Laws, as a result of the flooding stemming from Hurricane Floyd, I hereby declare that a state of emergency exists in Georgetown, Horry and Marion counties. I direct that the South Carolina Emergency Operations Plan remain in effect for these counties, and that prudent preparations be taken at the individual, local, and state levels to protect against the possible effects of the flooding. I further direct that specified units of the South Carolina National Guard, at the discretion of the Adjutant General in consultation with the Director of the Emergency Preparedness Division, remain on state active duty to assist civil authorities in these counties and to take all reasonable precautions as are necessary for the preservation of life and property.

Executive Order 99-44, which declared a state of emergency for the entire state, is hereby rescinded. Executive Orders 99-45 (prohibiting overcharging for essential items) and 99-46 (curfews) are hereby modified as of the date of this Executive Order so as to limit their application to Georgetown, Horry and Marion counties. Executive Order 99-55 (prohibitions on watercraft operations in affected counties) shall remain in effect until the United States Coast Guard and local emergency preparedness officials deem it safe to permit resumption of watercraft operations in the areas affected by Executive Order 99-55.

This Executive Order shall take effect immediately.

EXECUTIVE ORDER No.

No. 99-59

WHEREAS, on September 14, 1999, I declared a state of emergency to exist because of the threat posed by Hurricane Floyd; and

WHEREAS, I subsequently rescinded that state of emergency and imposed a new state of emergency declaration for Georgetown, Horry and Marion Counties due to the flooding that Hurricane Floyd generated; and

WHEREAS, the Constitution and Laws of South Carolina provide that a declared state of emergency shall not continue for a period of more than 15 days without the consent of the General Assembly; and

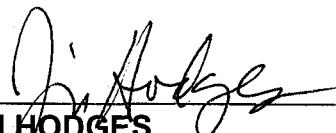

WHEREAS, the state of emergency for Georgetown, Horry and Marion Counties ended at midnight, October 13, 1999.

NOW, THEREFORE, by virtue of the power and authority vested in me as Governor pursuant to the Constitution and Laws of South Carolina, I do hereby declare that the herein described Executive Orders are cancelled, rescinded, and from this date declared null and void: Executive Orders 99-45 (overcharging), 99-46 (curfew), 99-53 (watercraft restrictions), and 99-55 (additional watercraft restrictions).

EXECUTIVE ORDER No.

No. 99-58

WHEREAS, changing state and world conditions, disrupted markets, extremely low commodity prices and drought conditions have created a financial crisis in the agricultural industry in South Carolina; and

WHEREAS, the agricultural financial crisis is resulting in farmers and associated businesses being forced to close their doors; and

WHEREAS, many small minority-owned and family farms are having difficulty finding an appropriate market niche; and

WHEREAS, the difficulties faced by large and small farms and the businesses associated with them are having an extremely deleterious effect on rural South Carolina; and

WHEREAS, a financial crisis in agriculture, one of the largest and most important industries in the state, will adversely affect the well being of the entire state; and

WHEREAS, an effective Farmers Market in Columbia could provide some economic relief to this struggling industry by providing a reliable outlet for alternative crops to the more traditional corn, cotton, soybeans, wheat and tobacco.

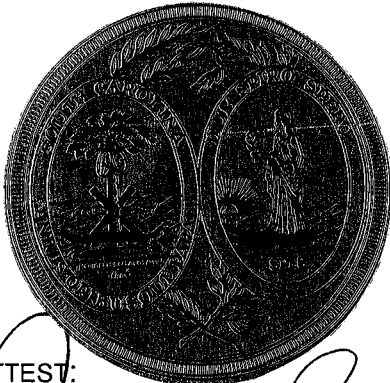

NOW, THEREFORE, I hereby establish a Study Committee to Redefine the State's Objectives in Having a State Farmers Market. The Study Committee shall have the following duties and responsibilities:

- Identify the State's purpose in having a State Farmers Market in Columbia.
- Identify who the Market should serve.

- Identify who will benefit from the Market.
- Identify what components would be necessary for the efficient and effective operation of a Market and where it should be located.
- Identify how capital improvements and operation of the Market should be financed.
- Identify how the Market should be managed.

FURTHER, the Study Committee shall have the following members who shall be appointed by the undersigned, unless otherwise indicated:

1. The Governor, or his designee;
2. The Commissioner of Agriculture, or his designee;
3. The Chairman of the Agriculture Commission of South Carolina, or his designee;
4. The Secretary of Commerce, or his designee;
5. The Chairman of the Senate Agriculture and Natural Resources Committee, or his designee;
6. The Chairman of the House Agriculture, Natural Resources and Environmental Affairs Committee, or his designee;
7. The President of the South Carolina Farm Bureau, or his designee;
8. Two representatives of the seasonal food industry;
9. Three vegetable producers;
10. Two wholesale brokers;
11. A horticultural producer;
12. A representative from higher education with expertise in farmers markets; and
13. Two members of the public, at least one of whom will represent consumer interests.

EXECUTIVE ORDER NO.

No. 99-60

WHEREAS, South Carolina is increasingly vulnerable to the many natural and manmade hazards that threaten the lives and property of the people of this state; and

WHEREAS, as required by the South Carolina Code of Laws, Section 25-1-440(b), I am responsible for the development and coordination of a system of Comprehensive Emergency Management which shall include provisions for mitigation, preparedness, response and recovery; and

WHEREAS, I have identified the need to bring together in a coordinated manner the principal agencies of state government involved in all areas of hazard mitigation planning and programming to address mitigation opportunities and approaches in a cooperative and comprehensive manner that will best serve the entire state.

NOW, THEREFORE, by virtue of the power and authority vested in me as Governor pursuant to the Constitution and laws of South Carolina, I hereby order the establishment of the South Carolina Hazard Mitigation Interagency Coordinating Committee, which shall have the following duties and responsibilities:

- a. To assist the Governor's Office and the General Assembly in identifying the hazard mitigation issues and opportunities facing the state for the purpose of developing a comprehensive hazard mitigation strategy; and
- b. To prepare strategies, policies, and reports on hazard mitigation issues, including hazard mitigation policy recommendations to the Governor, the General Assembly, and key state agencies involved in mitigation related areas within their normal agency missions; and
- c. To ensure that state agencies and local governments collaborate and cooperate fully to develop and execute sustainable hazard mitigation actions that will reduce the risks posed by all hazards to this state; and

- d. To coordinate with and support state agencies' efforts in obtaining and administering federal and other grants, including post-disaster mitigation grants available pursuant to the Robert T. Stafford Disaster Relief and Emergency Assistance Act, for the purposes of promoting hazard mitigation opportunities within the state.

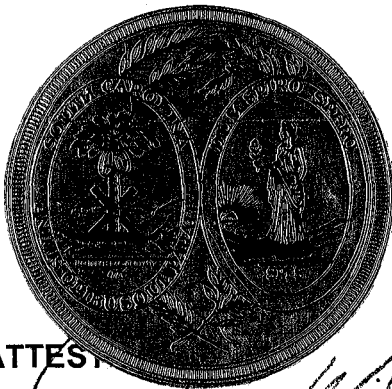

I further order that the South Carolina Hazard Mitigation Interagency Coordinating Committee shall be comprised by the following voting members:

- a. The Governor, or his designee;
- b. The Director, South Carolina Emergency Preparedness Division, or his designee;
- c. The Director, South Carolina Department of Natural Resources, or his designee;
- d. The Commissioner, South Carolina Department of Health and Environmental Control, or his designee; and
- e. The Director, South Carolina Department of Insurance, or his designee.

The committee shall elect a chairperson from the membership on an annual basis and all staff support shall be provided from the resources of the member agencies.

The committee shall annually identify, within the South Carolina Hazard Mitigation Plan, those state agencies and organizations that have responsibilities and expertise in statewide hazard mitigation. These agencies and organizations shall be encouraged by the committee to become non-voting advisors and participants in the development and implementation of hazard mitigation planning and programming actions across the state.

This Order shall take effect immediately.

No. 99-63

WHEREAS, South Carolina has recognized the need to proactively reform its legal and social services systems by bringing together public, private, and grass-roots organizations involved in the development, implementation, and sustainment of community-focused juvenile justice and family-based policies and programs; and

WHEREAS, there is a need for these organizations to work on issues in a more coordinated, cooperative, comprehensive, and cost-effective manner; and

WHEREAS, the citizens of the State of South Carolina need the operation of effective community coalitions to address the needs cited above;

NOW, THEREFORE, I hereby establish Governor's Community Youth Councils to be located in each of the sixteen (16) judicial circuits (hereinafter referred to as "Youth Councils"), which shall have the following duties and responsibilities:

- Address community problems through broad-based local collaborative programs designed to protect public safety, recognize the needs of victims, rehabilitate in the community juveniles who are not a risk to public safety, enhance families, develop intervention and prevention programs for juveniles at risk of offending; and
- Study and understand the trends on youth crime and other issues-related data for their particular circuits; and

- Develop and maintain circuit-wide inventories of services available to youth and families while utilizing existing community assets; and
- Explore, develop, implement, sustain, evaluate, or expand, in the light of such analysis, at least one community-based diversion/intervention/prevention program per Youth Council annually.

It is further provided that these Youth Councils shall have the following voting members:

- Balanced representation from each county within the circuit.
- Representation from, at a minimum, the following groups:
 - The court system;
 - Legal and law enforcement communities;
 - Education;
 - Human service agencies;
 - Local business/industry;
 - Government
 - Nonprofit organizations;
 - Foundations and other funding sources;
 - Civic groups;
 - Chambers of commerce;
 - Print and electronic media;
 - Faith community;
 - Grassroots community activists;
 - The Youth Council service population (youth, parents, etc.); and
 - Other citizens who represent an organization with, or who has a personal interest in, the mission of the Youth Councils.

It is further provided that these Youth Councils have the following non-voting member:

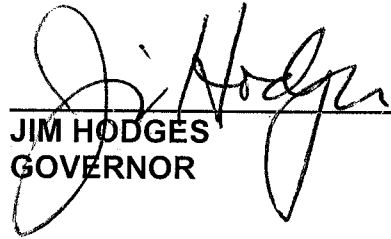

- Representative of the SC Center for Family Policy.

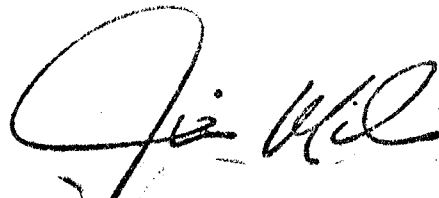

Each member will serve a term of two years, with no consecutive term limit for service on the Youth Councils. There are no limitations on the number of individuals that can serve on any Youth Council, as long as they meet the requirements stated above. Nominations to the Youth Councils will be made to the Office of the Governor through the SC Center for Family Policy.
