

From: Social Security Administration, Office of Communications <OEA.Net.Post@ssa.gov>
To: Kester, Tonykester@aging.sc.gov
Date: 4/13/2017 10:49:31 AM
Subject: There's still time to support National Social Security Month

Dear Colleague:

There's still plenty of time left in April to take part in National Social Security Month!

During this special month, I hope you will take advantage of our ready-to-post educational material to help your audiences understand the importance of Social Security to every person's financial plan. Follow us on social media and share our messages encouraging financial planning — including posts and video bites from popular personal finance expert Suze Orman.

On April 20, follow Social Security and USA.Gov on Facebook to participate in a live chat highlighting Social Security's 5 Steps Toward Your Financial Security. The livestream will start at 7:00 p.m. ET and will include questions from the public. We look forward to hearing from your members and followers.

Thank you for joining us in promoting National Social Security Month — and for everything you do on behalf of the people we serve. With your organization at our side, Social Security is here to help secure your future today and tomorrow.

The Social Security Administration does not endorse any particular financial advisory product or service.

Sincerely,

Maria Artista-Cuchna
Deputy Associate Commissioner
for External Affairs
(T) 410-966-0439
@SSAOutreach

Help secure your today and tomorrow. Open a my Social Security account today at www.socialsecurity.gov/myaccount.

For the latest Social Security News, check out the latest edition of the Social Security Update.

Stay Connected with Social Security:

myRA makes saving for retirement easy.

If you would rather not receive future communications from Social Security Administration, let us know by clicking here.
Social Security Administration, 6401 Security Boulevard 3409 Annex, Baltimore, MD 21235 United States