I spoke with Mr McDaniels this morning. Had a great conversation. I will review the request and call him back tomorrow. I think we can work this one out re his access and get him what he needs by Dec 31. Only concern will likely be cost to break the control of Access.

Consider this one handled.

Thanks

Christy

Mr McDaniels: It was a pleasure talking to you this morning. I will be back in touch tomorrow after I have a chance to review the information. I understand your Dec 31 deadline with the dealership. Thanks

Christy
