Subject: Robotics team meet and greet

Governor - My daughter and some of her friends from the Hanahan Recreation robotics club are going to represent South Carolina in two weeks at the Lego Invitational in Carlsbad, California. There is an all-girls team, ages 11 through 13, the only one in the state. They placed second in the state out of about 140 teams. There is also a second team that is the combination of boys and girls in the same age range.

These are wickedly smart children-my daughter just got a 25 on the ACT at age 12. While they are most likely never going to win any athletic awards these are indeed the brightest kids in the state that participate in this type of stuff. These kids are indeed the industry leaders and research scientists of the future. The STEMS education will certainly be put to use in their lives.

I know you're a busy person but I was hopeful that the kids would get a chance to meet you before they go to California. I can get a bus driven up there. They have already met Tim Scott, as he lives a couple houses from us. He has been great but the girls team really wants to meet you. (It must be a girl thing.)

We have met before I just don't have your phone number. Mine is 843-696-7550. If you're able to squeeze in 20 minutes in the coming week I would really appreciate it.

Thanks and have a blessed weekend.

Mike
