On background: the first family plans to attend Sunday worship at Mother Emanuel.

Quote from Rob Godfrey, Haley deputy chief of staff: "We understand everyone's desire to have policy discussions. Rest assured we will be having them. But right now, Governor Haley is focused on tomorrow's re-opening of Mother Emanuel, lifting up and strengthening the church family which lost nine of its members, and on healing our state and community as we prepare to honor nine of our own this week."
